

Date

March 17, 2015

Incentives for Public Service Delivery

IPA-Zambia, in collaboration with the International Growth Centre (IGC) and Economics Association of Zambia (EAZ), hosted the public seminar “Incentives for Public Service Delivery” in Lusaka on March 17th, 2015. Oriana Bandeira from the London School of Economics presented results from the Community Health Worker study. The session was moderated by Professor Nava Ashraf from Harvard Business School. The seminar drew in a large audience from across civil society and Government of Zambia.

City

Lusaka

Country

Zambia