IPA's Social Protection Program Conducts Training for Government Representatives in Guyana

From December 15-19, IPA conducted a training for government representatives working on social protection programs in Guyana. At the invitation of the Ministry of Finance, Dean Karlan, Nathanael Goldberg, and Kelsey Wright presented the Graduation Model and best practices for monitoring and evaluation. IPA worked with participants to develop theories of change for their programs and to consider possible modifications to their programs based on this exercise.
