

Article Link<http://www.intellasia.net/focus-on-south-east-asia-burma-580008>

IPA Study on Child Nutrition in Myanmar Featured in Intellasia

Among Southeast Asian Countries, Myanmar suffers particularly from flooding, cyclones, and landslides. For low-income populations, these natural disasters can be especially devastating, leading to child malnutrition and unsanitary conditions. Intellasia reports on how IPA Myanmar is partnering with Save the Children to generate evidence on the effectiveness of government-led cash transfer programs on child nutrition and hygiene.

March 11, 2017