IPA Rwanda Presents at the Economic Policy Research Network (EPRN) Conference

On 31 January 2018, IPA Rwanda presented at the Economic Policy Research Network (EPRN) conference, which brought together around 200 individuals in the economic and financial sectors in Rwanda. The conference was organized by the National Bank of Rwanda (BNR) in collaboration with EPRN. IPA presented the preliminary results of its recently concluded study on "The Impact of Financial Education through Savings and Credit Cooperatives in Rwanda." IPA has recently signed an MoU with EPRN as a key player in research & economic development. This collaboration will provide a platform for IPA to share research evidence with key policymakers, hence influencing financial and economic sector policies in Rwanda.
